We will only use your information for legitimate business purposes and in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

Legal Basis for Processing

Under UK GDPR, we process personal information based on one or more of the following lawful bases:

- Your consent
- Performance of a contract
- Legitimate interests in providing and improving our services
- Compliance with legal obligations

How We Store and Protect Your Information

We take appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your information from unauthorised access, loss, misuse or disclosure.

Your information may be stored securely using trusted business systems and service providers that support our operations.

Sharing Your Information

We do not sell, rent or trade personal information.

We may share information with trusted service providers who support the operation of our website or business, where necessary and subject to appropriate safeguards.

We may also disclose information where required by law.

Data Retention

We will only keep personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this policy or to meet legal, regulatory or contractual requirements.

When information is no longer required, it will be securely deleted or anonymised.

Your Rights

Under applicable data protection laws, you may have the right to:

- Access your personal information
- Correct inaccurate information
- Request deletion of your information
- Restrict or object to processing
- Withdraw consent where consent has been relied upon
- Lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the details provided above.
